The Field Band Foundation (FBF) of South Africa provides life-changing opportunities for the youth of South Africa through music. Members participate in music lessons, ensemble workshops, performance practice, festivals, and competitions.

Youth from the poorest and most challenged households in South Africa find a safe environment in which to explore their personal potential as young people living in a turbulent society and to help them rise out of poverty.

GET INVOLVED

- Become a corporate sponsor
- Sponsor an FBF member to attend the new FBF Academy in South Africa
- Sponsor an FBF member to spend the summer in the U.S. traveling with an American show band.
